REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to you do I come; before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Notes from The Liturgical Calendar For Scotland

St Teresa of Avila (1515-1582): Also known as Teresa of Jesus (her name in religion), was born in Avila and became a Carmelite nun there. Chosen as mother general of all Carmelite communities internationally, she reformed their rule, established many new convents, was a mystic, and contemplative, who was also highly active and practical. She travelled often to visit convents throughout Spain, besides writing much on spirituality and prayer. She died in Alba de Tormes, near Salamanca.

St Ignatius of Antioch (c.35 – c. 107). Is thought to have been a disciple of Saint John and was the second Bishop of Antioch. On his way to Rome (and martyrdom), he wrote some letters which are extant: They extol the importance of the office of a bishop and warn against Judaism and Docetism, (which held that the human form of Jesus was mere semblance with no true reality).

St Luke: Was the writer of a Gospel and of the Acts of The Apostles. He was a Companion of Saint Paul (on his second missionary journey), and is called by him, 'the beloved physician' (Col 4:14). There is a further mention of him with Paul in Rome, (2Tm 4:11). He is thought to have been a native of Antioch in Syria and to have been an artist. Details of his death (as a martyr?) are unknown.

Children's liturgy. The Children's liturgy will once again take place this Sunday 12th October, during the 1115 Mass where we will talk about the Gospel message and make a craft item. All children welcome. Parents may also attend if necessary.

Health walk. Many parishioners recently joined others on a health walk organised by Murton staff, where we walked around the loch at Murton. It was lovely to see some new faces from the parish. The next walk will take place this Wednesday, 15th October at 10.15. A chance to join others on a short walk (less than an hour), chat to others and have a free cuppa afterwards. All welcome, Please see Nancy or Angela for details.
