REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to you do I come; before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Notes from The Liturgical Calendar For Scotland

The Dedication of The Lateran Basilica: Following the Emperor Constantine granting freedom of worship to the Catholic Church in 313, the church was built beside the palace of the Laterani family and consecrated in 324. This church is the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome and until 1309, the Popes lived nearby. Its original dedication is to the Most Holy Saviour; in the Middle Ages, the names of Saint John the Baptist and Saint John the Evangelist were added (thus, a common name now is ‘Saint John Lateran’). The basilica bears the description: ‘Omnium Urbis et Orbis terrarum Mater et Caput’. (Of all the churches in the city and in the world, the Mother and Head.) This feast was extended worldwide to the whole Church. In 1565.

St Leo The Great (c. 390-461): From a prominent Roman family, he was eminent as Pope, thus called Leo the Great. To the Ecumenical Council of Chalcedon meeting near Constantinople in 451, he sent his ‘Dogmatical Letter’ which declared that Christ, in his one divine person had two natures, human and divine (called the Hypostatic union), a teaching that the council hailed as the ‘voice of Peter’. The following year He met Attila the Hun and persuaded him to abandon the invasion of the Italian peninsula. Leo is one of the great Doctors of the Church in Western Europe. His letters and homilies appear frequently in Matins in the Divine Office.

St Martin of Tours (316-397): Most born in Pannonia, Germany. And was a soldier in the army of the Roman Empire. Later, He was a disciple of Hillary of 48. I’ve found it among history near there, before being dragged forcibly to become Bishop of Tours. He was famed for his holiness and accounts of miracles. It is said that Ninian of Galloway, made Bishop in Rome and returning to Scotland, visited St. Martin of Tours. Since the latter died in 397, that year has been seen as a relevant date for Saint Ninian also. It is a coincidence that this day, the day that ended World War One, is the feast of a saint born in Germany who became a Bishop in France.

St Josaphat (1580-1623): Lived in what is now present day Ukraine. Where there was great rivalry and often violence between those who were faithful to Rome. And those who were Orthodox Christians. Josaphat was Bishop of Polotsk and his life was frequently marked with dissension., rivalry and fighting. Eventually, he himself, faithful to the Pope, most brutally murdered and is honoured as a martyr.

Proposed Church Hall Upgrade Works. A copy of the petition is available for signing on the table at the back of the Chapel. The aim of this is to give weight to applications for funding this much needed project, to upgrade the toilet facilities in the hall. Thank you.
