MEMORARE by St Bernard (1090-1153)

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to you do I come; before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Notes from The Liturgical Calendar For Scotland

St Elizabeth of Hungary (c. 1007=1031); The daughter of Andreas II of Hungary, was betrothed aged 4, married Louis IV of Thuringia when aged 14, bore three children, widowed when 20 (her husband dying while on a crusade). Accused of wasting the state's wealth by her charity to the poor, she was deprived of the Regency and exiled. She lived in a convent for a time, then retired to a cottage. Throughout her life, she was noted for her constant prayer and generous alms giving.

The Presentation of The Blessed Virgin Mary: This feast has been celebrated in the East since the 6th century and in the West since the 15th. An ancient tradition held that., after being presented there, Mary spent much of her childhood in the Temple. The first reading today, about the temple, might hint at this. Both readings, however, reminds us of Mary's total dedication to God's will, for it is God who is central in both. She is celebrated because she put God first, always.

St Cecilia: Is venerated as a virgin and martyr of Rome. In the second or third century she refused to worship the pagan gods and was beheaded. In the Trastevere church of Santa Cecilia, there is a recumbent sculpture of the martyr with three fingers extended, still proclaiming the Christian doctrine of the Holy Trinity; This image reproduces how her body was found when the tomb was opened in 1599.
